BRITISH ENVOYS LEAVE FOR PARIS FOR PEACE MEET

Bonar Law Makes Trip
Across English Channel
By Airplane

PRESIDENT IS CLOSELY
STUDYING FOOD SUPPLY

Also Gives Italy's Claim
Much Thought While Awaiting Parley

(Associated Press Telegram)
London, Jan. 11.—The British delegates to the peace conference left for Paris this morning. Premier Lloyd George and the representatives of India travelled by the ordinary route. Andrew Bonar Law, the chancellor of the exchequer, made the trip by airplane as he invariably does when he goes to France.

PRESIDENT IS BUSY.
(Associated Press Telegram)
Paris, Jan. 11.—Problems of great importance have been occupying President Wilson during the time he has waited for the opening of conversations with the plenipotentiaries of the allied nations. He has been devoting himself to close study of the food situation, the acute question of demobilization, and the extent to which he will support the claims it is expected Italy will make at the peace congress.

It is understood that Mr. Wilson has informed Premier Orlando of Italy, as to his attitude relative to Italian aspirations east of the Adriatic. It may be said that the president's decision as to this question can be described as only a partial endorsement of Italy's claims. He has been devoting himself to close study of the food situation, the acute question of demobilization, and the extent to which he will support the claims it is expected Italy will make at the peace congress.

There is a collateral question in connection with the food situation which virtually concerns the economic situation in the United States and which has not been as yet fully worked out. Large contracts for food supplies in the United States were cancelled at a stroke by the action of the American government in France and Great Britain. France, after coming to an understanding of the fact that American farmers had been spurred to food production by the promise that their crops would be marketed at good prices, was willing to accept the terms of the contracts but negotiations with Great Britain have not so far been successful.

It is pointed out that American consumers have borne the burden of high prices partially for the reason that those prices are necessary to stimulate production. Exports to neutral countries may open a way for relieving the situation. To that end negotiations are under way for a partial relaxation of the blockade.

The demobilization problem is probably the most acute of all. It is so delicate that it is not openly discussed but recent incidents in England caused by the unwillingness of British soldiers to return to the continent, are regarded by Americans and others as an indication of what might be cause for grave apprehension. Some military men feel, it is understood, that the withdrawal of American troops from France might bring a demand from French soldiers to be returned to their peace-time employments.

RUSSIAN FACTIONS MAY BE ADMITTED

(Associated Press Telegram)
Paris, Friday, Jan. 10.—It is understood on best authority that negotiations have been under way for some time between the allies looking to possible representation of all the different parties of Russia at the peace congress. It is understood that the plenipotentiaries would be on the condition that a truce between them be declared and accepted during the period covered by peace negotiations.

This proposition, which is supposed to emanate from the British government, is not accepted in its present form by France which refuses to recognize the Bolsheviks in any form. It is pointed out that recognition of the Bolsheviks would be an extension of the Bolshevik movement, of which the allies might be the victims. At the same time the French government is known to be disposed to lend all possible aid to orderly elements in Russia, wherever they may be reached.

GUARDS RIGHTS OF MINORITY NATIONS

(Associated Press Telegram)
Paris, Jan. 7.—President Wilson is giving considerable attention to the problem of guarding the rights of minority nationalities in the peace treaty. The territories in question are occupied by mixed races. The race having an evident majority will, in principle, determine the future of the regions in question, but when that is done the peace settlement, it is held, must also include complete guarantees for the protection of minority races.

Thus, if Greece should receive additional territory in Thrace, the rights of the Turks, according to this principle, would be protected by international covenant. Should Italy or greater Serbia have the ultimate possession of Dalmatia, the rights of both races as well as of the Mohammedans would be equally safeguarded. Some of the methods by which this can be done, it is pointed out, are proportionate representation in representative

OHIO MEN RELEASED FROM HUN PRISONS

(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, Jan. 11.—Names of Americans released from German prison camps and who have returned to France were announced today by the war department. The list includes the following Ohio men:
Charles Morin, Columbus; Howard W. Riley, Marion; Frank M. Petre, Youngstown; Leroy Bowman, Troy; Leslie Sites, Ironton; George L. Hyde, Leipsic; Charles E. Locke, Cincinnati; Roy J. Mathey, Washingtonville; Chas. V. Lyon, Cincinnati; Wilfred E. Kaufmann, Massillon; Ira Adams, Sabina.

PERUVIANS FLEE FROM PERU DURING CRISIS

(Associated Press Telegram)
Lima, Peru, Jan. 11.—Steamers reaching Peruvian ports during the last two days have brought more than 2,000 refugees from Chile. It is estimated that the total number of people who have sought safety in Peru since the crisis between Peru and Chile arose is between 5,000 and 10,000. Reports from La Paz, Bolivia, state that scores of Peruvians have reached there from Antofagasta.

72 ARE KILLED IN STRIKE RIOT

Nearly 900 Others Wounded
In Street Fighting In Buenos Aires On Friday.

(Associated Press Telegram)
Buenos Aires, Jan. 11.—Seventy-two persons were killed, 81 were gravely wounded, and more than 800 received minor injuries in the fighting which occurred here yesterday and last night as a result of a general strike, according to figures compiled at a clock tower in the morning. Fighting was incessant in all parts of the city from 7 o'clock until midnight, but then began to die away.

General Dellepaine, who assumed military dictatorship last night, called the strike committee of the regional labor federation before him at an early hour today and order it to bring to him before noon the schedule of demands on which the federation will agree to settle the strike.

Heavy government forces are occupying the postoffice, which was attacked by the strikers during the fighting. The strikers were repulsed and the government troops seem to have matters well in hand there.

Soon after General Dellepaine took charge of affairs and established headquarters in the central police station, he ordered fire to be opened on strikers who were attacking the building. He said this morning that attacks were made on seven police stations, but that all were repulsed.

700,000 TROOPS ARE DISCHARGED

American Demobilization Proceeds More Rapidly Than British, General March Declares.

(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, Jan. 11.—Demobilization of the American army, General March declared today, is proceeding at a rate which comparative figures show to be more than twice as fast as the British demobilization. Actual figures up to January 10 of men discharged from the American army showed a total of 63,889.

WILD WEST SHOW MAY GO TO FRANCE

(Associated Press Telegram)
New York, Jan. 11.—The sending of a wild west show to France to entertain the American army expeditionary forces is being considered by William F. Larkin, director of the Knights of Columbus overseas activities, following the offer to finance such entertainment by F. T. Corcoran of Fort Monmouth.

It was said it would cost $250,000 to finance such an expedition. Mr. Corcoran told Mr. Larkin "the citizens of Colorado, Wyoming and New Mexico want to contribute this fund as their bit toward entertaining our fighters abroad."

PRESIDENT ASKS LABOR BOARD TO ACT IN STRIKE

Appeals to Patriotism to Accept Finding of Board Members

HINT ARMY AND NAVY
MAY ENFORCE DECISION

May Not Be Able To Muster
Quorum Before Monday

(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, Jan. 11.—An official request has been sent to the striking harbor boatmen of New York to return to work pending action by the war labor board which President Wilson asked by cable today to decide the controversy.

Representatives of the war and navy departments, the railroad administration and the shipping board decided upon this policy and communicated their decision to A. H. Smith, regional director of railroads who was asked to advise the strikers.

In the meantime telegrams from the board itself to the strikers and boat owners were prepared. It is understood that hearings will be held shortly regardless of whether both sides agree to submit, and that in accordance with the President's message the government agencies are ready to enforce an award when it is made.

(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, Jan. 11.—President Wilson today called a request to the war labor board to take up again the case of the marine workers strike in New York and proceed to make a finding. The president said he was sure the war and navy departments, the shipping board and railroad administration would use every power to make the finding effective and that he was confident also that private boat owners would feel constrained by patriotism to accept the board's recommendation.

GETS $500,000 ON FORGED BONDS

Chicago Bond Broker Does
Nice Business In Printing
Worthless Municipal Securities.

(Associated Press Telegram)
Chicago, Jan. 11.—Cutter, bond broker, who was arrested last night on a charge of forging municipal, school and village bonds aggregating $600,000 in value, was to be arraigned today in police court. He admitted preceding his arraignment, the police declared, that he had forged the bonds and procured thereon from banks and investment concerns in Chicago nearly $500,000.

Similar concerns in St. Louis, Cleveland, Pittsburgh and other parts of the country are also said to hold some of the forged securities. All the money, Cutter said, was sunk in an iron mine venture at Pine Bluffs, Mo., known as the Butler iron company, a supposedly $2,000,000 enterprise.

The system said to have been used by Cutter was to buy a small amount of a bona fide security and then print a larger one, forging thereon the name of the officials on the genuine bonds. The good and the bad bonds were deposited together as collateral for loans. For some time he was able to cover his operations by paying interest on the bonds himself, instead of having them sent to the respective points of issue for collection. Finally, the Chicago Title and Trust company, said to hold $200,000 of the spurious bonds on which it loaned $100,000, instituted an investigation which led to Cutters arrest late yesterday.

BRITISH TROOPS NOT RECALLED

Advices From American
Army at Archangel Do Not Indicate Any Such Action.

(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, Jan. 11.—General March made public today a report from the American military attaché at Archangel, stating that the British troops during December and the early days of this month, indicating that the situation was regarded as satisfactory both from military and sanitary standpoints.

The chief of staff said he had no confirmation of reports that British forces were being withdrawn from the Archangel sector.

SHARKS ARE AFTER WAR SAVINGS STAMPS

(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, Jan. 11.—A campaign to stop activities of brokers who are buying war saving stamps at a discount was started today by Lewis Franklin, director of the treasury's war loan organization who appealed to holders of these securities either to keep them until maturity or to have them cashed at post offices.

37TH ENGINEER REGT. IS ORDERED HOME

(Associated Press Telegram)
Coblenz, Thursday, Jan. 9.—The 37th Engineers, consisting of 1,600 picked electrical and mechanical experts from every state of the union, and commanded by Colonel Albert Pierce of Eau Claire, Wisconsin, has been ordered back to America on the first available transport. The 37th is the first regiment in the Third army to be ordered home. Its work will be taken over by other engineer contingents in the army of occupation.

NEWARK MARINE ON COX'S STAFF

Harry P. Johns, Wounded
Near Soissons In Second
Marne Battle Is Honored
By Governor.

(Associated Press Telegram)
Newark, Jan. 11.—Governor Wood today honored Harry P. Johns, a private in the 37th Engineers, who was wounded near Soissons in the second Marne battle, and returned to the United States on a transport ship.

Private Harry P. Johns of West Main street, Newark, veteran of the Chateau Thierry battle, and returned wounded soldier, has been appointed by Governor James M. Cox on his personal staff.

HARRY P. JOHNS.

The entire staff according to the governor's announcement will be made up of wounded soldiers. In the notification received by Private Johns today it stated: "I am writing you to notify you that you are adjutant on my staff for the inauguration, on Monday, January 13, 1919, as a representative of the marines and soldiers of Ohio. The letter was from the adjutant general."

TRUST FUND LEFT BY T. ROOSEVELT

Divides $60,000 Between Six Children—Residue of Estate Left to Executors
In Trust.

(Associated Press Telegram)
Minneapolis, Jan. 11.—The will of Theodore Roosevelt filed today, divides a trust fund of $60,000 into equal shares for each of the children, bequeaths wedding presents given at the marriage of his first wife to his daughter, Alice, and the residue of his estate to the executors of the will in trust.

COMING WEEK WILL BE MILD, IS FORECAST

(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, Jan. 11.—Temperatures for the following week announced today are:
Ohio Valley: Temperature near or above the normal and generally fair weather except that rains or snows are probable Wednesday or Thursday.

Region of Great Lakes: Unsettled weather with occasional snows. Low temperatures at the beginning of the week will be followed by considerably warmer Tuesday and Wednesday and normal temperature thereafter. No severe cold probable.

HINES IS NAMED U. S. RAIL HEAD BY PRES. WILSON

Advocate of McAdoo's Plan of Five-Year Control
Gets Position

WAS RECOMMENDED BY FORMER DIRECTOR GENERAL

Succeeds McAdoo Who Resigned Position Early
In December

(Associated Press Telegram)
Los Angeles, Cal., Jan. 11.—Walker D. Hines, assistant director general of railroads, was appointed director general today by President Wilson to succeed William G. McAdoo.

Notice of the appointment called to the White House by President Wilson reached Mr. McAdoo by telegraph last night at Winslow, Ariz., where the retiring director general passed through that town on his way to Los Angeles.

(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, Jan. 11.—Walker D. Hines, assistant director general of railroads, has been appointed director general by President Wilson succeeding William G. McAdoo, who now returns to private life.

Mr. Hines who was recommended by Mr. McAdoo, is an advocate of the latter's plan for five-year continuation of government control to provide a test period, and has supported most other policies of the retiring director general. Mr. Hines has been associated throughout the last year of the government management. He is accredited with having originated many policies of the railroad administration. If congress does not enact new railroad legislation at an early date Mr. Hines favors returning the roads at once to private management and this is expected to develop into a strongly contested issue within the next month of two.

STEAMER SINKING WIRELESS REPORT

Appeal Sends Two Ships
Full Speed to Assistance of Imperiled Crew.

(Associated Press Telegram)
Halifax, N. S., Jan. 11.—The steamship Castilla reported by wireless this morning that she was sinking fast, 65 miles south of Canso and called for immediate assistance. She is believed to be the American steamship Castilla, 3,922 tons gross, operated by the shipping board. There is a British steamship Castilla of 6,396 tons.

The steamships Bergensfjord and War Frigian reported today they were rushing to the Castilla's assistance, the Bergensfjord being 170 miles away. The latter is an 18-knot boat. The wireless received was as follows:
"S. O. S. Castilla 44° north, 80 west sinking fast. Conditions critical sharp. Drifting east. Want assistance immediately."

(Associated Press Telegram)
New York, Jan. 11.—United States shipping officials said here today that the steamer Castilla reported sinking off Nova Scotia was undoubtedly the American steamship Castilla which was being brought around from the great Lakes for overseas service. She was last reported arriving at St. Mary, N. S., from Quebec, January 6 and was bound here. The shipping board had received up to noon no word of the Castilla's plight other than through press dispatches.

FAVORS PROMPT ACTION ON BILL

President's Request For Hundred Million Dollars
For Food May Get Immediate Consideration.

(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, Jan. 11.—Democratic members of the house rules committee today reversed the committee's previous action, and ordered the report of a rule giving immediate consideration to the bill appropriating $100,000,000 for European famine relief, requested by President Wilson.

(Associated Press Telegram)
Brussels, Jan. 11.—Socialists from allied countries will be called to meet at Brussels in the near future, according to an announcement made by the Belgian party. Among other work to be done will be the re-establishment of the socialist international congress.

SPARTACANS CONTROL INTERIOR TOWNS OF GERMANY, IS REPORT

DELAYED ADVICES FROM AMSTERDAM INDICATE
ACTIVITY IN TOWNS ALONG THE RHINE RIVER

SPARTACANS STORM MUELHEIM PRISON; SET CRIMINALS FREE

Newspaper Is Seized and Issued As "Red Flag", Organ of Revolutionary Workers—Residence of Magnate Ransacked by Mob.

(Associated Press Telegram)
London, Jan. 11.—Dr. Karl Liebknecht, the Spartacan leader in Germany, was killed during street fighting on Thursday evening, according to a Copenhagen dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph company.

Several dispatches from the Associated Press correspondent in Berlin, filed on Friday up to 3 o'clock in the afternoon and received here this morning, contained no mention of the reported death of Dr. Liebknecht.

The dispatches, in fact, do not refer to happenings in Berlin, but deal with events in the provision or with press comment. Nothing definite is known here as to what Friday's developments in Berlin really were.

Delayed Amsterdam advices, dated Thursday, contain reports of further activity by the Spartacans in the Rhine towns. They apparently control Dusseldorf, where several prominent persons were arrested while many others only escaped arrest by crossing the Rhine. The Muenster Anzeiger reports that the Spartacans stormed the prison in Muenster and set free 170 criminals.

At Muelheim, during a big demonstration of strikers on Wednesday the strikers seized all newspaper buildings and issued the General Anzeiger, the next morning as the Red Flag, designating it as the organ of the revolutionary workers of Muelheim. They forbade the issuance of all the other newspapers. The private residence in Muelheim of Leo Stuenkel, the industrial magnate, was entered and ransacked by a mob which later dispersed.

Earlier indirect dispatches give further details of Thursday's fighting in Berlin. Both the Spartacans and the government forces are described as acting with great determination, although it seems worthy of note that with all the reports of severe combats in which artillery, hand-grenades and rifles are described as having been used freely, none of the observers has anything to say definitely of large casualties or has apparently observed any considerable number of bodies.

RIOTING SPREADS IN GERMANY

(Associated Press Telegram)
Copenhagen, Jan. 11.—Very serious rioting occurred Friday in Dresden, Hamburg, Augsburg and Dusseldorf, according to reports received here. The fighting was most severe in Hamburg and is still in progress.

The government troops in Berlin have not yet succeeded in crushing the Spartacans who still hold newspaper row. The fighting for the newspaper buildings has lasted since Wednesday, and cannon and flame-throwers now are being used with many fatalities resulting.

BERLIN GOVERNMENT IS GAINING STRENGTH

(Associated Press Telegram)
London, Jan. 11.—There has been no additional news from Berlin early today to throw light on the situation there, but newspaper opinion as stated here is to the effect that the government is rapidly gaining the support of the army and most of the people in its struggle against the Spartacans.

"It appears to be generally recognized in Germany," says the Daily Mail, "that the sooner there is a stable government there with which the allies can deal the sooner there will be peace."

TROOPS ARE DISARMED BY BERLIN MARINES

(Associated Press Telegram)
Leipzig, Thursday, Jan. 9.—A party of marines from Berlin succeeded today in stopping a body of troops on their way to Berlin by meeting and disarming the Berlin-bound force and disarming the troops. The marines had intercepted a wireless message reporting the troops to pass through Leipzig and were at the station in force when the troops arrived.

The marines demanded that the soldiers surrender their weapons and sharp fighting ensued. The troops lost two officers and three men killed and 12 wounded. The marines had two dead and two wounded as a result of the fight which ended with the disarming of the soldiers.

PROMISES CRUSHING OF BOLSHEVIKI PLANS

(Associated Press Telegram)
Leipzig, Thursday, Jan. 9.—This whole Bolshevik uprising will be put down within the next three days and we are absolutely sure of our position. The entire bourgeoisie and three-fourths of the Berlin workmen are with us. This statement was made in the corridors of the Reichstag today by the German government. "The report that martial law will be declared is incorrect but we have made every military preparation demanded to meet the situation," the statement continued.

Apparently the government are supporting the Reichstag more or less solidly if their newspapers are any criterion. The latest government proclamations have been greeted with satisfaction by even such an avowed conservative and monarchist paper as the Tagesspiegel, which declares that while it refuses to support any social government politically, it considers the present government as the protector of law and order and the bearer of the authority of the state. The other bourgeois papers speak in a similar strain.

It may be significant that the government's latest proclamation is addressed to "fellow-citizens," whereas former proclamations were headed "comrades," the name by which the socialists ad-

HAGER'S PATROL BADLY "SHOT UP"

All Are Killed or Wounded After Capturing 22 Ger- mans and Eight Machine Guns.

Claude Hager, son of Captain and Mrs. Charles B. Hager, of this city, was in charge of a patrol on the front which captured 22 Germans and eight machine guns. After the prisoners had been sent back to the supporting troops, the patrol became over-anxious and charged some machine guns and 16 of them were killed and the other two wounded.

The facts are told in a letter written by Hager on December 19, and the events he tells of took place on November 7. The Hager family had not heard from their son since before the signing of the armistice and were considerably worried concerning him. That he was hurt in some way is also told in the letter, but it seems that intervening letters giving the details of the accident have gone astray. The letter follows:

"Here I am again, feeling fine and dandy, only my arm bothers me some. Still, pretty stuff, but otherwise I am feeling some happy, for as each day comes to its end it makes me one more day closer to those I love.

"And won't this be a wonderful day? You can't imagine how anxious I am to see you. Do you know how long it had been since I have sat myself down to a decent meal? Well, it has been over nine months since I have even sat myself down to a table. Wait until I see some good old home-smoked, honest to goodness food once more. You just wait and watch me.

"Well, things are about the same here at the school. We are still drilling every day, working pretty hard. We have had no more news in regard to whether we will be commissioned or not. No one seems to know. Sure would like to come home a lieutenant.

"When I was at the front the last time, on November 7th, I, or rather my patrol (18 men) and myself, captured 22 Germans and eight machine guns. But we lost 16 men and the others were wounded. Could not be helped, and was no fault of mine. It was about 5 o'clock on the morning of the 7th of November that we got the prisoners. They were sent back to our support, and when my men rejoined me, they were a little 'too sure' of things, and got a little over-anxious. So when we were fired upon by machine guns they charged ahead before we were ready, and naturally they were shot up.

"The next morning my horse was shot from under me, and the only time I was hurt happened then.

"But the war is all over and the only thing that is of interest to me is home. And from news we are getting here, I will almost bet that I will be with you before February. This won't be so bad, will it?

"I must get this to a finish as lights are supposed to be out, so will close."

SPARTAGANS

Riga and other parts of Livonia and Courland now in Bolshevik hands with the Baltic Germans, the object of the attack, recalling the historic St. Bartholomew's night on the part of the Bolsheviks and their local Russian supporters. Three men from the German legation who remained behind in Riga, relying upon their diplomatic immunity, were arrested, the former minister's records, and their public funds—amounting to 500,000 marks—were confiscated.

BULLETS FLY ABOUT ROOMS OF COMMISSION

Berlin, Friday, Jan. 11.—(M. T. P.) For the protection of the American, British, French and Belgian commissions at the Hotel Adlon, at the corner of Unter den Linden and Pariser Platz, 24 government soldiers armed with rifles, machine guns and hand-grenades, have been stationed. They relieve a non-descript guard composed partly of marines, some of whom were Spartagans.

The government buildings which are likely to be attacked at any time are only a few hundred yards from the hotel. The Brandenburg Gate, which has been the scene of several skirmishes, is only 100 yards from the hotel. A bullet last night struck the casing of a window in a room occupied by Brigadier General Harries, head of the American commission.

CAR PLUNGES INTO CREEK; CAR MAN RESCUES FOUR

Strasbourg, Jan. 11.—(M. T. P.) Four persons were more or less seriously injured in an automobile accident here today when a car on the Northern Rhine-Tractions lines plunged 100 feet from a bridge over Sugar Creek. The accident is believed to have been caused by speeding rails. Louis G. A. Strassburg, 35, in a serious condition, having suffered three broken ribs and internal injuries.

Wilbert Lewis of Canton, Penn., was on the car, was shocked, but not injured when he was plunged into the icy water when the car went down the bridge. He rescued four passengers by pulling them through the window.

WIRE BRIEFS

Washington, Jan. 11.—(M. T. P.) From eight to ten car loads of mail for American soldiers in France were being sent out today, according to the testimony before the Senate committee and it is being returned to writers.

Paris, Jan. 11.—(M. T. P.) President Wilson will not go on a trip to the United States on Saturday.

Metz-Creuz, Jan. 11.—(M. T. P.) Grand Marshal of the army, General, has been ordered to have a large number of soldiers which he will march out to support in full.

Strasbourg, O. Twenty injured, some seriously in place of northern Ohio, intervened car into creek.

TOUCHED MEN IN RIGHT SPOT

Y. M. C. A. Camp Secretary Knew the Feeling of Soldiers Gathered to Subdue Bloodthirsty Hun.

War's changes are being shown in greater degree in the Y. M. C. A. activity, remarks the New York Sun. The psalm-singing official has passed. In his place is the athletic director and entertainer, of red blood. No better example of the metamorphosis could have been had than in an incident not long ago at Camp Mills, the great Long Island concentration camp where the men were equipped just before sailing.

One of the old-style officials was holding a meeting and was expatiating at length on the care the men should take of their souls. His audience, already partly homesick after months of training, was restless and grew glummer and glummer.

The camp secretary watched with dismay the effect the speaker was having on the soldiers about to sail. The climax came when the parson, after a final appeal to the men to face death bravely, said:

"We will now sing 'Ring the Bells of Heaven.'"

That was too much for the local camp man and he jumped to his feet, holding up his hand to the man at the piano to stop. Then he shouted:

"Boys, before we sing this 'Ring the Bells of Heaven' don't let us forget that first we must 'Wring the Kaiser's damned neck.'"

The shout that went up broke up the abashed parson's meeting and "Ring the Bells of Heaven" was indefinitely postponed.

MODEL ON AMERICAN CLUBS

France Considering Adoption of Our Methods of Teaching Farming to Boys and Girls.

France is considering the adoption of Uncle Sam's methods of teaching better farming and home making to boys and girls. Representatives from the French high commission, lately in this country, made a point of studying carefully the methods of the federal department of agriculture and the state agricultural colleges in conducting boys' and girls' clubs. Much of the information thus collected has been widely reprinted by the French press, accompanied by editorial comment expressing the view that the man or woman power of France having been depleted or disorganized by war service, France for some time to come will be dependent in large part upon its younger population for its food supply and suggesting the formation in France of a nation-wide system of boys' and girls' clubs patterned on those in America. It is expected that these clubs will grow staple products—garden produce, wool, farm grain and forage crops, poultry and farm animals on farms not devastated, the very sort of which must first of all be put in condition. They will stimulate production by the young people of France through organized contests not only in farming but in home enterprises such as bread making, garment making, cooking and home management.

Ventilation.

The mayor of Torre Haute the other day appointed a number of the city schoolma'ams to do special police duty, such as to seeing to the ventilating of stores, etc., says the Indianapolis News. Miss Margaret Kilroy, a high school teacher, being one of those appointed, visited a number of stores. In one the manager became indignant as she explained the necessity of his doing more ventilation. "Why, it's very warm here," she complained, unbuttoning her coat and revealing a georgette crepe waist.

"Ventilating doesn't have anything to do with it," protested the man. "Why, 99 per cent of the cases of flu in this country have been caused by the wearing of georgette crepe waists."

He was actually ready to smile when back came Miss Kilroy's cool rejoinder: "I suppose that explains the great number of cases in the United States army, then."

Record Telephone Service.

The largest private telephone branch in the world is the one which serves the expanding needs of the war department. On July 1 this branch served 3,175 extensions; on August 1, 3,626. It requires 126 trunk lines for incoming calls; 76 for outgoing calls, local and submarine toll; 17 private toll lines to New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, via Cleveland, Hoboken and Newport News, and 106 tie lines to other government stations in Washington.

Acclimatizing Salmon.

The bureau of fisheries reports that 20,000,000 sockeye and 1,000,000 humpback salmon eggs had been obtained at the station at Yee Bay, Alaska, from August 29, when collection began, to September 20. If the collections are sufficiently large, 1,000,000 humpback eggs will be sent to the M. T. stations for the continuation of the acclimatization experiments undertaken several years ago. Later in the year it is hoped to send a second shipment.

Idea for Liberty Monument.

A Washington man proposes that as the United States was in the war 831 days, a Liberty monument to the members of our heroes be erected at the capital, one foot in height for each day, making it 834 feet high, with the names of all who gave their lives engraved on bronze tablets, to be placed in the interior of the monument.

MEDAL GIVEN TO KING'S PARENTS

Heroism Which Results In Death of Former Newark Boy, Wins Recognition From Italian Govt.

Twice cited for bravery before the final act of heroism which resulted in his death, Joseph Mallalieu King, officer in the Italian ambulance section of the American Red Cross, was cited for distinguished bravery and awarded the Cross of War following his death. Lieutenant King is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Moore, 49 East Church street, this city, and the son of Mrs. King, also formerly of Newark, but now of Toledo.

The medal was presented to Lieutenant King's parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. G. King, in Toledo, on Tuesday. The presentation was made by a brother officer, John K. Cloud, of St. Louis, acting in behalf of the Italian government and the Italian division of the American Red Cross.

They were also presented with letters from the commander of the 18th Sanita section, 9th Italian army, and the surgeon in charge of the hospital in which Lieutenant King died.

Lieutenant King was aged 19. He left Toledo in May, 1918, and after vainly attempting to enlist in the aviation section of the American and French armies joined the Red Cross. He was the first American to be killed in Italy. He died during the heroic defense of the Brenita river, where the Italians stemmed the Austrian advance and turned defeat into victory.

Lieutenant Cloud served with Lieutenant King at the front and was present when he was killed. He was in command of the section and wears the Italian war cross and medals for valor. He arrived in New York December 20 and was commissioned by the Red Cross authorities to present the war cross to King's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. King contemplate visiting Lieutenant King's grave.

GERMANS AND POLES HAVE HARD FIGHTS

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM.) Berlin, Friday, Jan. 10, 2 p.m.—Heavy fighting is reported between Poles and Germans in the province of Posen. The Germans captured Czarikau in the northern part of the province taking the place by assault. They were compelled later, however, through the arrival of Polish reserves to withdraw to the north bank of the Netze. The Germans have likewise been compelled to abandon Kolmar in the face of superior numbers but they are reported holding the north bank of the Netze. Fighting is in progress at Wissembourg and Wissek, with the trend of the battle to the Germans.

The Polish council at Posen has issued a proclamation formally assuming supreme rule in the entire province. Decrees, it is stated, will be issued concerning the introduction of the Polish language in the schools and the export of foodstuffs.

Unless command of the province can be regained by the Germans the action of the Poles appears seriously to threaten the provisioning of all northern Germany.

CHARGE MAJOR ACTIVE IN ENEMY PROPAGANDA

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM.) Washington, Jan. 11.—Hearing before the senate judiciary subcommittee on German propaganda continued today with Alfred L. Becker, former deputy attorney general of New York, under cross-examination by Senator Reed of Missouri. The committee also planned to hear J. J. Dickinson of Washington, formerly a major in the army who was mentioned in previous testimony as having engaged in German propaganda work prior to the entrance of the United States in the war.

Mr. Dickinson was to appear at his own request. Witnesses have testified that he had claimed to be close to the administration that he had advanced knowledge of its foreign policy. Another witness expected to be heard today was J. A. Moore, a representative of some of William Randolph Hearst's magazine interests.

HOLD FUNERAL OF GEN. FRANKLIN BELL

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM.) New York, Jan. 11.—Funeral services for Major General Franklin Bell, U. S. A., commander of the department of the east, were held today in the church of St. Cornelius, the Cathedral on Governor's Island. The Rev. Edmund B. Smith, chaplain of the military post on the island was in charge. The body will be taken to Washington late today and interment will be in Arlington National cemetery on Monday.

DEMAND BATTLESHIP BADEN.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM.) London, Jan. 11.—The German fleet ship, Baden, has been demanded in place of the uncompleted Mackenzien, which has been surrendered to the Allies at Scapa Flow.

RELIGIOUS SENDS SYMPATHY.

Washington, Jan. 11.—A dispatch to the state department from Paris today conveyed the confidence of the king and queen of the Belgians upon the death of former President Roosevelt.

British Parliament.

The minimum duration of a British parliament for nearly seven years, is now fixed. The record of long parliament of Cromwell's time lasted from Nov. 4, 1653 to April 29, 1659, and was broken by another eight years, 1659 to 1667. The property of the parliament is that it restricts the power of the king and only about one-third of the people are voters. All members of the church of England, but not of the church of Scotland, are eligible to sit as members of parliament. This provision of the constitution applies to the clergy.

Be quick at reporting. If a person accuses you of being one-sided, say "You're another."

"LES MISERABLES"

THE MASTERPIECE OF THE IMMORTAL VICTOR HUGO

"LES MISERABLES"
WILLIAM FOX PRODUCTION

In "LES MISERABLES," that incomparable actor, William Farnum, undoubtedly does the best work of his stage or screen career. His interpretation of "Jean Valjean" is a living, breathing ideal. Mr. Farnum is supported by a notable cast which includes Jewel Carmen, Dorothy Bernard, Sonia Markovitz, Kittens Reichert and others.

Entertainment value excellent; educational value excellent; coherence of narrative strong; acting admirable; photography good; technical handling expert; costuming excellent; atmospheric quality of scenic setting; convincing; historical value—a real contribution; moral effect—excellent.

Sunday.

In "The Snail" Shorty Hamilton appears in the character of Jack Salter, manager of his father's small farm in China. Jack is in love with a half-breed daughter of his father's foreman, but the father objects to the union on the order to eliminate all danger, arranges to have the girl sold into slavery and deported to America. Jack learns of this and immediately starts in pursuit of her. Upon his arrival in San Francisco he searches in the United States, and is to all appearances an American.

Among the fashionable, worldly pleasure-seeking set in which he moves, Enid Benton is the only one for whom he really cares. They have reached the point of a tacit engagement when Enid is suddenly brought to his senses in no gentle manner. Not only does he fail to receive his allowance from his uncle, but in its place he gets the news that his affairs are in very bad shape. To lose his fortune is bad, but to lose Enid however, to hide the pearls, and he refuses to tell where they are.

"Pals First."

The Auditorium brings back for a two-day showing for Monday and Tuesday next, the late Harold Lockwood in the Screen Classic, "Pals First." Below we give the story of this play from the novel of the same name by Francis Perry Elliott and which was published by Harper & Brothers.

On the wings of night Danny Royland and Donnie, graduates of Yale, Harvard, Sing Sing and San Quentin, arrive footsore and weary at Winnicrest Hall, somewhere in Tennessee. Uncle Alex, an old darky servant, believes he recognizes in Danny his long vain for her in the haunts of missing Chinese girls and learning from a friendly Chinaman that girls are smuggled across the border from Mexico he secures a position as cowboy upon a ranch in that vicinity and many thrilling encounters follow. During a battle between Mexicans and the cowboys Jack finds his sweetheart, only to lose her again as the law provides that all these girls shall be placed in a convent to await deportation.

and holds a tremendous fortune in pearls. The rumors persist, and at about the time Tom reaches Honolulu, where is stationed his uncle, reach the astute ears of this gentleman, who suggests that Tom being the real king of the natives, go to the island and force them to tell him the whereabouts of the pearls. This done, they can convert them into a tremendous fortune and make a get-away! Tom agrees, somewhat absently, thinking only of Enid.

On arriving at the island, Tom receives a truly royal welcome, which, however, only bores him. One person especially, makes him royally welcome, and that is little Tahona, daughter of Tahiri, a chieftain. She falls in love with the handsome Tom and naively shows it. It is from Tahona that he learns the hiding place of the pearls, and he would have secured them safely had not Koro, the regent, become suspicious and sent away the boatmen Tom had engaged to take himself and his plunder away from the island. Being, therefore, unable to escape, Tom is hunted to cover at last by the indignant natives and thereafter kept a prisoner. He has had time, absent master, Richard Fentress Castleman. The pals array themselves in new garments which they find in the house and after a sumptuous dinner listen with interest to the garbulous report made by Uncle Alex and his wife, Aunt Caroline, of what has happened in Dick's absence. Thus they learn of the death and burial of Dick at sea, and of the existence of Dick's sweetheart, Jean Logan; her father, Judge Logan, and Dick's cousin, Dr. Harry Chilton. Chilton is scathingly denounced by the old darkeys for having vainly endeavored to convince Jean that Dick was dead and that she is therefore free to marry him. That night Judge Logan calls Danny on the phone to greet him and to announce that he is coming to give him a thousand dollars, which, as Dick's agent and legal adviser, he has just collected. The money is to be put in Dick's safe which Danny opens as a subtle means of further establishing himself as Dick. He finds Dick's will, leaving everything to Jean. It is now clear to him that Dr. Chilton is a

ESTABLISHING PEACE.

Peace was by no means established when our generals signed the armistice and the soldiers threw up their caps and fired the last shot on November 11. The social structure of central and eastern Europe is in complete ruins. The institutions built up after two centuries of evolution have collapsed. In these populous empires, the mobs rule the population with machine guns. Educated, intelligent and well meaning people are governed by the domination of brutal ignorance. Anarchy is a disease as contagious as the dread influenza, and infection of these terrible conditions is likely to spread.

The first thing to be done is to help the newly created governments to establish justice. Take the case of Poland. Ground down for a century by the German and Russian heels, their territory ravaged by the German hordes in the late war the Poles are struggling against terrible odds to establish a just democratic government. They are beset on the east by the Russian Bolshevik mob, threatening to overrun them with a horde of Asiatic ignorance. And on the other side they have the Germans, "beaten but sullen and revengeful, hopeful of winning back at a later date what they have lost.

The new Polish nation, as well as the Czech-Slovaks and others liberated from tyranny, must have substantial assistance. We should hasten food, clothing and munitions of war to them, and if necessary soldiers, so that they can maintain civilization and establish a stable government.

If these negotiations, controlling many millions of people, can be aided to establish strong governments, with armies capable of self defence, they will constitute a tremendous wall of defense against the aggressions of the Germans in future years.

Also the book agents are going to welcome the heroes back from France, by selling them six volumes gilt edge and Russia call bound histories of the war, for $10 more than they can be bought in a book store.

The politicians are getting ready to welcome home the soldiers, with speeches proving that the aforesaid politicians must be elected to care for the soldiers' interests.

A lot of people who refer to foreigners as "wops" and "daggoes," stayed at home and made money, while the wops and daggoes fought for them in France.

The builders of the Hog Island ship plant deny they were slow, and they seem to prove their case by the speed with which they spent the money.

Mr. Hoover has appointed Mr. F. M. Fleisch as his food agent. Mr. Fleisch must be careful to do no feeding.

THE REASON FOR PROFITS.

Certain noisy political philosophers represent that earnings gained by an employer of labor are in effect stolen from the people. The people, as the phrase goes, are "exploited."

In primitive states of society no one is "exploited." Everyone works for himself. And everyone lives in poverty and degradation. As people grew in intelligence, they discovered that great gains could be made for everybody by permitting anyone to hire other people, organize their labor and product, and sell the same for whatever profit could be had.

The result of that policy immediately adds to the prosperity of every industrious man, even if he himself has not the ability to organize production. People of large ability are encouraged to throw their entire energies into their work.

A man with organizing ability can easily double the production of a certain group of men, simply by organizing their work systematically. The people at large can well afford to allow such a man any ordinary profit. Even if he made 20 per cent on his sales, which is a very unusual percentage, if he has doubled the production of the group of people, the community is 50 per cent better off for his effort.

There is enough competition to keep prices down about as far as the cost of labor and material permit.

Furthermore, the system of private property and profit encourages men of ability to provide plants of labor saving machinery, which greatly reduce the cost of the product they turn out.

The community sympathizes with reasonable measures to check extraordinary and unjust profits. But any proposition to abolish private property and profits is a proposition to return to the destitution and misery of primitive society.

PRICE OF CLOTHING.

A word of encouragement on the high price situation came the other day, when George Lytton of Chicago, one of the biggest clothing dealers in the country, reported in an arbitration case that jobbers in woollens are already reducing prices. He believes that a recession in prices is already under way.

If this condition exists in men's clothing, it must also manifest itself in women's wear.

It would seem excellent policy for dealers in all clothing articles to get ready for the approaching change, by liberally advertising the midwinter reductions that most of them will make to clean up stock. Goods held over until next winter are likely to sell for considerable less. Most merchants will make generous terms to induce the public to buy this material now. But it can not be moved without a considerable amount of advertising.

SOMETHING FOR FRANCE.

(Louisville Post.)

We would suggest to some of our friends who are so anxious "to do something for France" in the way of cancelling some of the debts due to this country from France in the matter of war loans that they lend a hand in opposing the propaganda to impose a prohibitive tariff by this country against French goods.

In regard to the French debts, we need no need of taking action at this time. France expected to pay the money when we loaned it to her, and we think expects to pay it now. Certainly we should deal with this situation with the greatest delicacy. It may be that France prefers to pay her debts as we paid ours after the Civil War. In any event, no American government would be justified in rebating any portion of that debt until the people are consulted upon the subject.

But this matter of tariff is a very different thing. France is going to make a greater effort to get on her feet in a commercial way after the war. Her best chance will, of course, come through unrestricted commerce with the United States. And this country will profit by low tariff duties, for then we can send our iron and cotton and grain to France and France can pay the money to us.

There is, however, a determined effort to put up the tariff walls and prevent all of this. Every friend of France should join in the fight against it.

THE SECRET TREATIES.

(Philadelphia Record.)

The relation of the United States to the treaties the Allies made with one another before we became a party to the war is a delicate one. In a strict sense they are no concern of ours. But as they effect the settlement of a peace which we had no small part in bringing about we can hardly ignore them or allow them to be ignored by the nations that made them.

BOHEMIA HIVE OF INDUSTRY

Little Country, Now to Be Given Opportunity to Progress, Has Been Much Misunderstood.

Not one of the little countries which have come into being as independent states, or parts of new nations, since the triumph of the allies, is more often misunderstood in America than Bohemia has always been. The very name has implied, for many persons, the unconventional ways of artists, the gypsying of vagrants, and the impatience of restraint which is supposed to characterize countries remote from great centers of trade and industry and rather backward in their business interests.

But Bohemia is a wonderful hive of hard-working and skilled artisans. It is one of the most densely populated countries in the world, exceeding, in that respect, Germany, Austria-Hungary, as a whole or in either half of the old monarchy, and even Italy. The number of inhabitants, in proportion to the area, is 75 per cent greater than it is in France. Bohemia is almost exactly half as large as Ohio, but its population, nearly 7,000,000 at the beginning of the war, is about 35 per cent greater than that of this state.

BOW LOW TO EMPRESS TILLIE.

(Cincinnati Enquirer.)

While thrones totter and kings and queens are uncrowned in unhappy, distracted Europe, the process of placing diadems on female heads continues uninterruptedly in this country. Today the land lifts its pearly eyes in praise of Tillie Alcantara, empress of the lacteal domain, whose accession to royalty is just heralded from California.

Tillie is a registered Holstein cow, and last year she yielded 33,424.8 pounds of milk, or about 2,851 gallons, thereby dethroning a sister Holstein, residing in Washington, and bearing the multitudinous title of Lutske Vale Cornucopia, who let down 31,246.9 pounds in the preceding year.

Ohio, whose herds are, like her political aspirant, to distinction and place in the dairy world, yields homage to the Pacific Slope pending the expected hour when scepter and crown shall come hitherward. Our loyalty to Empress Tillie will stand every test—butter fat, vitamins, tuberculin and all the rest.

Don't Tease Child.

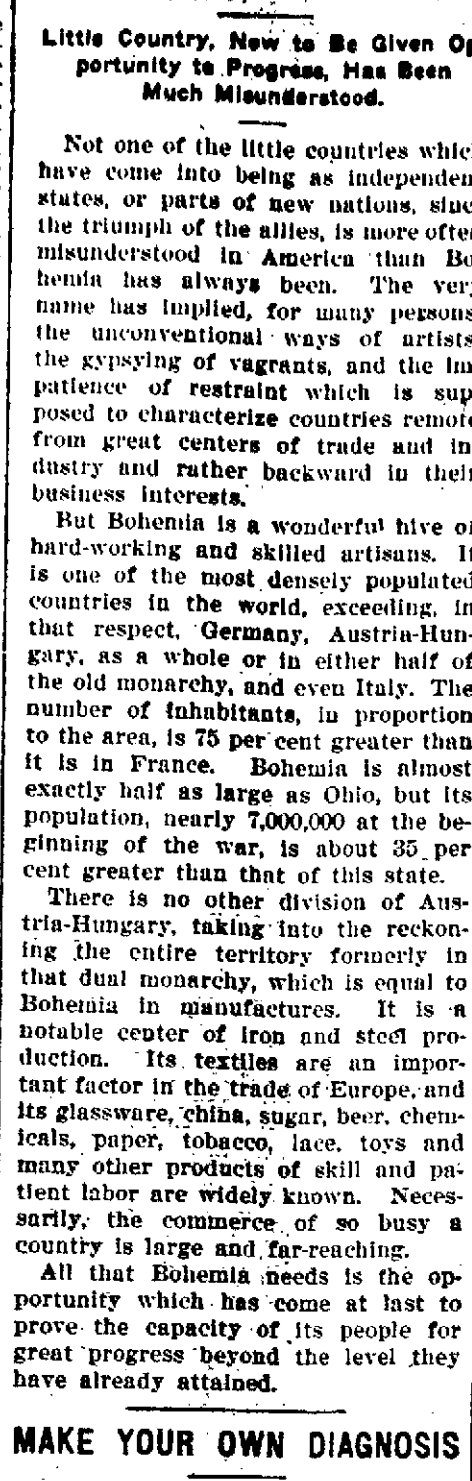

Teasing has ruined the disposition of many a child. The parents are not likely to be guilty of such conduct, but older children in the family, or some other relative, may make the child's life utterly miserable by constant teasing. A thoughtless adult, intending to be playful, will keep a child struggling for some object, almost allowing him to get it over and over again, only to thwart the child's purpose, and so causing a wearing irritation.

Rich Rhine Country.

Strange to say, the fine grapes are grown on the eastern slopes of the Rhine and the choicest varieties, as Johannisburger and Steinberger, are produced higher up the river, south of the Rhine province. It is, nevertheless, the land of the vine, especially the Moselle valley. The substantial claim of the province is its mineral wealth.

MAKE YOUR OWN DIAGNOSIS

All One Needs to Determine Physical Condition Is to Test by Clinical Thermometer.

The best way of asking a friend how he is, is not to say flippantly: "How are you blowing?" or even "How's your liver?" but simply and sufficiently: "How's your temperature?" According to your temperature, you are well or ill, alive or nearly dead. In fact, there are only ten degrees between blooming health and certain death, observes a writer in London Answers.

The temperature of the air has nothing to do with the temperature of the body, which is the temperature of the blood. The Eskimo in health sends the clinical thermometer to the same spot as the Negro in Timbuctoo, viz., 98 degrees Fahrenheit. The temperature of the air will sometimes vary 40 degrees in the same day, but if the temperature of the body goes up two degrees, you are ill; four degrees, you are very ill; six degrees, and the doctor is very anxious; eight degrees, and you are at death's door.

Anybody can take a temperature, even his own. It is a great safeguard to possess and use a clinical thermometer. Ninety-eight degrees, all right; 100 degrees, stay at home; 101 degrees, go to bed; 102 degrees, send for the doctor. Anything higher than that is a doctor's job.

The Economy General.

Gen. Sir Henry Horne, "the man who took Douai," has been called the economy general through skillful manipulation of men and his small casualty list. His name will be handed down to posterity as the man who invented the "creeping barrage" system, which came into universal use on the battlefield. With the assistance of this barrage, he captured Pricourt, Mametz and Douai, gaining maximum results at minimum cost. His losses in men and material on each occasion were very light.

General Horne belongs to the Old Contemptibles, and he saw service also in the South African war. His proudest moment during that campaign was when General Cronje surrendered to him.

May Throw Light on History.

A number of archeologists from the Tokyo Imperial university and elsewhere are making excavations in the compound of the Hakusan shrine, Toyama prefecture, said to be a most valuable storehouse of material for historical study. Doctor Shibata of the Tokyo university is quoted as saying: "We may discover some clues, as to whether our forefathers came from Korea or from Saghalien." At the place mentioned a number of bones of women and children are being unearthed.

Clemenceau, Playwright.

Like many another Parisian of politics, Monsieur Clemenceau is interested in the finer things of theater and, like Waldeck-Rousseau before him, assiduously frequents it even though he happens to be prime minister of France. In his years of leisure he has dabbled also in the writing of plays and two of his pieces, "Les Requins" and "Le Voile du Bonheur," have found place on the stage.—Boston Transcript.

FLEAS AND COOTIES ALIKE, POET DECLARES

Capt. Archie Roosevelt, left; Maj. Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., right; Capt. Kermit Roosevelt, center.

Company M of the 147th Infantry, was at Hulst, Belgium, when Corporal Charles E. Henry wrote his cousin, Mr. and Mrs. Austin Smith. They were there for a few days on their way back to France. He finished his letter with a clever little poem in which he sympathizes with "Sheep" for having to keep busy in the evening in front of the fire "chasing his fleas." He says: "We haven't got the flea like Sheep, but the cooties instead. Parts of the letter follow:

"You wanted to know where I am stationed. We are at Hulst, Belgium, and I don't like it here at all, for it rains every day. We are on our way to France. We stopped here for a few days."

"From France we will come home if nothing happens between now and then. Well, this is sure some country over here. The people wear wooden shoes and drive dogs and cows."

"You said for me to watch that a Hun didn't get me. Well, I said, and no Hun had my number, and I sure was a lucky boy not to get a wound. Your letter says you had some time when the armistice was signed. You were not any happier than we were, for on the morning of the 11th of November it was our turn to go 'over the top,' and they woke us up at 2:30 and we made up our packs; had a little to eat, and we had about two hours before we would go to the front line, and were waiting our orders to move out. One of the runners came from battery headquarters after our lieutenant to come to headquarters. He went over and came right back and said: 'Give me your attention.' We thought he was going to give us pin points on our day's job, which we had in front of us. Instead of saying that, he said: 'Well, boys, the armistice has been signed, and they have sent word up to the front line to cease firing. Go back to bed till further orders.'"

"I tell you we were sure a happy bunch of boys. We stayed up; played a game and sang all the rest of the night. Well, you invited me home for the Christmas dinner. We are figuring on being there about that time. This is all I can write for this time."

"Here is a few lines; don't know what you think of them, but we think they are just right:

SYMPATHIZING WITH SHEEP.
Dear dad; he wrote, I'm here in France and sharing in each Yankee's advance. We're driving back the filthy Hunns. The Heinies now are on the run. And I am well and strong tonight. Except for little things that bite.

Do you recall those happy days We sat before the log fire's blaze. Within our little parlor snug With Sheep asleep upon the rug. And heard the clock tick on the shelf. Except when Sheep would scratch himself?

And there were times with sudden 'zip' He'd bite himself upon the hip. Then turn his head in manner queer. To scratch himself upon the ear. Then like the whirling of a gale Get up and madly chase his tail.

Well, dad; I do not want to brag. But since in France I serve the flag I'll say in running down the flea! In fact, I think I've learned to do Some twists our old dog never knew.

We used to scold and put him out. We would not let him stay about. When he began to thump the floor. But, oh! when I get home once more I'll let Sheep scratch the evening through. Because, you see, I've had 'em, too!

"P. S.—Now we haven't got the flea like Sheep, but the cooties instead, and they are nice to have!"

HOME SAVED BY PREPARED ROOFING

Just One House in Moose Lake, Minn., That Didn't Burn.

There was just one oasis of safety in the Moose Lake and Cloquet, Minn., district when those towns were completely wiped out by fire recently—one house that is standing today, although sixteen homes in the immediate vicinity were burned to the ground.

This home, which resisted the sparks and burning embers with which the air was filled, was roofed with Certain-teed Asphalt Shingles. The owner, Mr. Louis Larson, says that he owes the preservation of his home to the Asphalt Shingles, because of the fact that practically 75 per cent of the Moose Lake houses were burned after the fire had started on the roof. He is naturally rather proud of his choice of a roof and is recommending the same materials to his neighbors.

Instances multiply every day, which show that old-fashioned wood shingles are even less resistant in cases of general conflagration, but are a positive source of danger, as in addition to taking fire quickly, they rapidly spread burning brands throughout a whole neighborhood.

For this reason prepared roofing and shingles are everywhere being adopted in place of other types of roofing. Prepared roofings have long been known to offer effective resistance to fire, smothering fires which occur under them and eliminating the danger from flaming brands. They are also the most economical and convenient material for roofing, being easy to lay, low in cost, compact in bulk and very durable.

The Government recognized these facts by choosing vast quantities of prepared roofing for its great war construction program. All the big monuments were roofed with it. According to some authorities, had it not been for the availability of this type of roof and its economy and convenience, the Government would have been seriously handicapped in the wonderful building record made.

The red or green surfaced shingles have also been found to blend perfectly with every type of building material and are very desirable from the artistic point of view. In prepared roofing is the accepted modern material for roofing purposes.

These who possess pieces of antique furniture should devote personal attention to them, and especially to pieces of old oak, which should be kept in condition by periodical rubbings of tanned dipped in a mixture of turpentine, oil and spirits of turpentine. The polished French furniture is cleaned with paraffin.

MANY ENTRIES BOOKED FOR POULTRY SHOW

Prospects are growing still brighter for a big and most successful poultry show at the K. of C. building, 59 West Main street, next week.

Large entries are coming in from other cities and other states, including 30 birds from Canton and 25 from Indianapolis. This has caused great enthusiasm among the members of the local association and they are working hard on their prize stock to prevent the outsiders from getting all the prizes and prize cups. Two of the best poultry judges in the business have been employed to award the prizes.

Plans have been completed to entertain the Ohio Poultry Breeders' Association while they stay in Newark. Prof. M. L. Kilpatrick, former director of Poultry at Ohio State University, now manager of the Pratt Experimental Farms at Morton, Pa., is expected to be here and has promised to make an address at the Farmers Bureau rooms in the Chamber of Commerce building some evening during the week, to be announced at the Ohio State University.

The electrical display in conjunction with the poultry show bids fair to be a "bummer."

Everyone interested in poultry in any way, or electrical appliances for the farm or home, should not fail to attend.

STATE ROAD JOBS TO BE FILLED THIS SPRING

Superintendents, foremen and inspectors are required in large numbers for public highway improvement work that is to be started just as soon as weather conditions will permit, and in order to have eligible list sufficient to supply all demands, the State civil service commission will conduct examinations the last week in January and the first week in February for those who seek appointment.

Examinations will be held at Zanesville, February 5 and 6. In each case applicants for superintending and foreman will be examined on the first day, and those for inspector on the second. Hundreds of appointments are to be made as soon as the eligible list can be certified.

Those who desire information for either of these positions should address The State Civil Service Commission, Columbus, Ohio.

COSHOCTON MAN IS ARMY COBBLER CHIEF

Lieutenant Thomas A. Carlton of Coshocton, well-known in Newark where he has frequently visited, is serving as factory superintendent of a shoe repairing shop—a three-story brick building—in Coblenz-Lutzelt, across the Moselle from Coblenz, where he has 100 Germans engaged in the repair of 10,000 American shoes worn by the soldiers in their march across Rhenish Prussia. Great numbers of these shoes are arriving daily. Two hundred Germans are employed in the factory and they are paid eight new marks per day by the Americans, with new money from Berlin according to the terms of the armistice.

OFFERS INDUCEMENTS FOR RE-ENLISTMENTS

Earl Woodward, who has charge of the civilian naval recruiting service in this city, has received word that men enlisting in the navy now, who have been in any branch of the service, will receive a month's leave with pay before entering upon their new duties. The information Mr. Woodward received states: "Authority has been received to grant 30 days' leave to all men who enlist in the navy that have had previous service in the army, navy or marine corps, provided that they enlist in the navy within four months of their date of discharge from the service. This leave is with pay."

Washington, Jan. 11.—Legislation authorizing deportation of Germans and other aliens, interned during the war, was requested by Attorney General Gregory yesterday. He sent the draft of a bill to Representative Barnum, chairman of the immigration committee, who at once introduced it in the house.

Deportations, by the terms of the bill, would be on the warrant of the secretary of labor that the aliens were undesirable residents because they had been ordered interned.

EMIL SOHN DIES OF APOPLEXY IN AKRON

Emil Sohn, aged 56 years, who formerly lived in this city, and was connected with the Bostwick jewelry store, died Friday in Akron of apoplexy. He went to Akron to live last March. The deceased was a member of the Masonic and Moose orders.

Surviving are his wife and two daughters: Mrs. Paul E. May of Wilkesburg, Pa., and Mrs. Mandel Brothers of this city to whom his home in Hoover street the body will be brought this evening.

Funeral services will be held Monday afternoon at 2:30. Interment will be made in Cedar Hill.

Early Belgian Art.

Three painters who helped to beautify Belgium are associated with the Burgundian dynasty in Belgium—Hans Memling and the Van Eycks, Jan and Hubert. The work of the first of these has in it characteristics that are typical of the early Belgian art, the love of detail. All the pictures painted by early Belgian artists are full of details of fur, brocades, jewelry, gold, silver, oriental rugs and richly carved furniture. This pleasure in the outward appearance of things is noticeable in Memling's "Virgin Enthroned" in the Uffizi gallery, Florence. The geometric pattern of the rug, the violin, the apple, the castle in the background are all worked out with photographic realism. Memling's delight in the surface of things is like the pleasure a merchant feels when he fingers a fine piece of textile.

Do Your Best.

"I really knew better," says the girl-worker who has misspelled a word. "That was just a slip; I knew what was right all the time." If this is offered as an excuse, it falls short of its purpose. In a sense, ignorance is excusable. One is not to blame for spelling a word wrong when he does not know how to spell it right, though he very likely is to blame for not knowing what is right. But if he knows and still does wrong, he is without even the poor excuse of ignorance. If you know how a thing should be done do it that way. Live up to your knowledge. And remember that carelessness is a worse fault than ignorance, and do not offer it as an excuse for your failure.

NEW YORK'S BIG SONG HIT CALLED "SOME DAY I'LL MAKE YOU GLAD"

A new song has just appeared which in a point of heart-felt interest is said to be the most pronounced hit written in sometime. The following are a few lines of the verse:

Sweetheart I feel so sorry,
That I have made you so blue,
And while your heart is breaking,
My heart is aching to.

Some Day I'll Make You Glad

Although the song is written with out a high note quite an effect is obtained when sung, owing no doubt to the tune. Various orchestras are using the melody as a one-step, waltz and fox-trot.

METHODISTS PLAN BIG FUND FOR CHURCH WORK

Every Methodist pastor and the "five wives" key-masters of churches within Ohio, southern Indiana and Kentucky, are expected to attend the centenary convention of the Cincinnati area at Memorial hall, Columbus, January 22, 23 and 24. The gathering will be one of the greatest, if not the greatest, meeting of Methodists ever held within this area.

The generosity of some deeply-interested laymen has provided funds to cover the expenditure for the 1600 pastors within this area, in connection with their attendance at the convention. The tremendous importance to the church of the centenary movement will draw the leading laymen to the gathering, on whose program appears three bishops—S. Earl Taylor, counted by many as "the finest west layman in Protestantism," and many other important leaders of the Methodist church in the centenary movement. Bishop L. B. Wilson, just from a year in the war zone, is scheduled for a message which is characterized by those who have heard it as a "smasher."

Pastors and laymen from Indiana plan to travel to Columbus in a special train.

The centenary movement is the greatest of its kind in the history of any Protestant church. Started to commemorate the first missionary work of the Methodist church done in a century, it is now a world-wide movement, the Indiana area at Upper Sandusky, it has far outgrown a commemorative event and has become a united movement throughout the church for the greatest forward movement in Protestant history.

The church has set out to secure pledges of $1,000,000 to be paid up in the next five years to carry on extensive work at home and abroad. Conditions created by the world war have been taken into careful account in the program. But the deepest significance of the centenary goes far beyond the raising of a great sum of money, say its leaders.

"The great problem following the war is to make democracy safe for the world. The world can never be made safe for democracy while 1,000,000,000 of the earth does not have Jesus Christ."

The deeper object of the centenary lies in inspiring the life of the Methodist people that they will devote themselves in fullest measure to the accomplishment of this program at home and abroad."

"Love's Conquest."

Acclaimed as one of the finest motion picture productions in this country in years, "Love's Conquest," based upon "Gismonda," the celebrated play by Victorien Sardou, which is the second starring vehicle in Paramount pictures for Mme. Cavalier, the famous operatic star, will be shown at the auditorium theatre next Friday and Saturday.

For this production many lavish settings were erected, including the palace of Gismonda, the church and the convent. In the representation of the various scenes, some highly artistic mob effects have been devised by Edward Jone, the director, who handled several thousand men and women with the highest skill.

Gismonda is a robust character of which Mme. Cavalier, superbly endowed with beauty and talent, makes the most. The scene where Almerio rescues the child from the lion is said to be one of the most thrilling ever pictured.

"The Whispering Chorus."

The auditorium theatre offers Cecil De Mille's big special production, "The Whispering Chorus," the story of which is as follows:

Harassed by creditors and unable to meet the current expenses of his family establishment, John Trimble, a trusted employee of a contracting corporation, resorts to theft. Little by little the menace of arrest and punishment confronts him and one day he deserts his wife and mother to become a hermit in a hut on an island in the Ohio river. His wife, caused a diligent search to be made for her husband, but every effort to find him proves fruitless.

While fishing in the river one day, Trimble drifts to the surface the body of a man of about his own height and build. To give credence to the belief that he had killed, Trimble places his clothing on the corpse with sufficient data to insure identification of the body as that of Trimble, and sets it afloat. The body is recovered and after an investigation by the police, it is declared to be that of Trimble and that he was a victim of foul play.

Meanwhile, Mrs. Trimble, convinced that her husband is dead, accepts the attentions of George Coggeswell, a lawyer, and in due course becomes his bride. Coggeswell later becomes governor of his state and Mrs. Trimble, as the late Mrs. Coggeswell, is a member of the society. The aged mother of Trimble is heart broken at the loss of her son, but she is loath to believe that he was murdered or that she never will hear from him again.

Auditorium Notes.

Several return engagements are noted in Mgr. Fenberg's list of picture features for next week. Monday and Tuesday the late Harold Lockwood is seen in his greatest success "Pal's First," and on Wednesday Mrs. Charles Chaplin (Mildred Harris) is seen in "The Doctor and the Woman," a Lois Weber production. This will be glad news for many for Mary Roberts Rinehart's great story known as "The Doctor and the Woman" was published in book form by Houghton, Mifflin & Co., and was read by over two million readers. Do you know why doctors sometimes suddenly disappear? Why should a famous physician suddenly sacrifice friends, fame and fortune—disappear to hide his head in shame from his fellow practitioners? If you didn't see "The Doctor and the Woman" when shown at the Auditorium before, surely see it next Wednesday.

"The Romance of Tarzan," the sequel to "Tarzan of the Apes," coming to the Auditorium soon, required five months to produce. The cast was made up of five more principals, and 700 colored folks were used in one jungle battle with the whites. One exterior set alone cost $5,000—hundreds being spent on single interior sets. The production of "The Romance of Tarzan" is on the same scale as "The Doctor and the Woman," and it comes soon, the date to be shortly announced.

Jack Pickford in "His Majesty, Bunker Bean," will soon come to the Auditorium. Pickford is said to be at his best in the title role of this already famous stage play, which ran for one year in New York and six months in Chicago.

"Say, Young Fellow" with "Doug" Fairbanks, is an early booking at the Auditorium.

"Friend Husband," a Paramount-Mack Sennett comedy, is seen at the Auditorium tomorrow, together with Sessue Hayakawa in "Hidden Pearl." The incomparable orchestra in a selected musical program under the leadership of Prof. Schmidt, will be heard in a late and selected musical program.

Bessie Barriscale, famous as a delineator of emotional characters on the screen, has one of the best roles of her entire career in the Thomas H. Ince several part dramatic photoplay "Those Who Pay."

"Those Who Pay" has appeared in a long list of fine successes, but never before has she portrayed a role of such scope as the one she depicts so skillfully in "Those Who Pay."

Miss Barriscale's rise to fame was simultaneous with Mr. Ince's ascendancy, for it was one of the first Ince pictures to be shown in the art productions that gained her prominence.

Cambridge—George W. Milton 45 of Passville, was recently killed by a fall from a tree in the city of Cambridge. When fellow workmen succeeded in prying the rock off his body they found he was dead.

At Vernon a frame house belonging to Wm. L. Ward was totally destroyed by fire at about 6 p. m. Thursday. The house was occupied by Geo. Smith and family.

EDUCATION AND THE PUMPKIN

Eastern Writer Points Out Wherein the Two Have Some Strong Points of Similarity.

At one of our city vegetable markets one day a farmer displayed with commendable pride a huge pumpkin of alluring aspect, with the statement that it grew "full twenty feet from the stalk," remarks Rochester Post-Express. This habit of wandering in tortuous uselessness to a long distance from the source of production before the fruit of the vine is produced is long known of the pumpkin.

It would not be amiss for our educators to consider the pumpkin vine; unquestionably some of them have in earlier days, but whether with a view to its close analogy to educational processes is uncertain. Perhaps it is too much to say that the best fruit of the educational vine is produced from its original source; that what comes of schooling is something quite different from the apparent result at the source; that the best things a man or woman does are very different from the particular, or nonparticularized thing, he or she is directly taught to do. We are turning to the business of making our schools show quick fruitage of working ability.

But it is at least a fair hazard to opine that the pupils who become "some pumpkins" will often as not be products known a long way from the special process of education that extreme vocationalists advise.

COLOGNE'S UPS AND DOWNS

Important German City of the Present Has Had Its Periods of Dire Adversity.

During the Middle Ages Cologne was a place of great trade; the weavers, the goldsmiths, and the armorers of the city were famous the world over; while its merchants had houses in London, and the city itself was accorded a chief place in the Hanseatic league. Decay set in with the dawn of the Reformation, and the place owed its downfall to its intolerance. Thus, its university, which in the fourteenth and fifteenth centuries had a great reputation, began at once to decline. This policy dealt severe blows at the prosperity of the town, and when, in 1764, Cologne was occupied by the French, it was a poor and decayed city of some 40,000 inhabitants, of which only 6,000 possessed civil rights. Since 1815, however, when it was finally assigned to Prussia, Cologne has continued to prosper, until today it is one of the most important cities of Germany, with a population of nearly half a million.

Fool-Proof Airplane.

The latest model of British airplane is said to be as nearly foolproof as it is possible to make such a machine as an airplane. The machines are so balanced and the wings so arranged, that when the engine stops they glide gradually and easily to earth. The following test shows how stable these airplanes are: A pilot climbed to a sufficient height, and then stopped his engine and took his hands off the control, merely keeping his feet on the rudder bar. He steered for an air-drome twenty miles away, and, having headed her straight, he let the airplane do what she liked. She traveled the whole twenty miles as steadily as a bicycle coasting down a long, straight and gentle hill. Of course the pilot had to take hold of the control stick to land the machine in the air-drome, but except for that, and the steering, the airplane made the whole journey by herself.

Dogs as Messengers.

Experiments made in the training of dogs as messengers with the armies in the field have, it is stated, given satisfactory results. The dogs which proved most receptive under instructions are chiefly half-breed collies and retrievers. A rather poor breed of bob-tailed sheepdogs has also done well. All have been trained to perform their errands during heavy firing, both of rifles and guns. They can be fired over as easily as the ordinary sporting dog, and what is quite another thing, they will face fire at close range.

Had Same War Adventures.

A letter from the chaplain of base hospital 48, French lines, brings to light a strange case of parallel circumstances in the war experiences of two San Franciscans, Corp. Arthur T. Mullen, 621 Alvarado street, and Private Jeremiah Sears, 623 Alvarado street. After enlistment the two men, living in the same building, were assigned to the same division, fought in the same battle, escaping wounds; then in the battle of Argonne they were both wounded October 14 at the same time, by machine-gun bullets, and were placed side by side on cots in the same hospital.

New American Industry.

Turkish towels now come from Lewiston, Me., where the mills are daily turning out thousands of high-grade Turkish towels that are said to be far superior to the goods formerly brought across the Atlantic. One mill as a side line turns out 30,000 bedspreads each week and daily produces thousands of yards of mercerized silk.

Canary Given Fine Funeral.

Scores of persons attended the funeral of a canary bird at the home of Harry Chambers, Moorestown, N. J. The bird was twenty-five years old, and many grownups had known it since they were children. It was buried in a little silver box.

When a soldier's pay is held up by red tape it naturally makes him blue.

THE LODGES

W. R. C.
Lemert Relief, No. 45, was called to order on Wednesday afternoon by the president, Mrs. Xenia Mitchell, with a splendid attendance of the new officers and one guest, Mrs. Burch from California, who gave an account of the war-work the Woman's Relief corps did in the state of California. On Sunday afternoon, January 5, in joint installation with Lemert Post 71, G. A. R., was held and the following officers installed by Eva Haughey: President, Mrs. Xenia Mitchell, senior vice president, Mrs. Lizzie Adams; junior vice president, Mrs. Nellie Sullivan; treasurer, Mrs. Jennie Moore; secretary, Mrs. Margaret Long; chaplain, Mrs. Matilda McFarland; conductor, Mrs. Ella McDermott; guard, Mrs. Anna Krepts; assistant conductor, Mrs. Lena Baden; assistant guard, Mrs. Ella Looker; patriotic instructor, Mrs. Ida Burch; press correspondent, Mrs. Elizabeth McManus; banner bearer, No. 1, Mrs. Whitten; No. 2, Mrs. Melick; No. 3, Mrs. Wiley; No. 4, Mrs. Conley; musician, Mrs. Frankenberg.

AMERICAN INSURANCE UNION.
Newark chapter A. I. U., met Thursday evening. Fourteen applications were received and approved, and 11 candidates were given the degree work. Out of eight members reported on the sick list only five are suffering from a light form of the "flu." The next regular session of the chapter is Thursday evening, January 23. A class will be initiated. The next official meeting is Friday evening, January 17. The following officers were installed for the ensuing year:

President, J. M. Spettel; vice president, Mrs. J. I. Baldwin; chaplain, Mrs. F. M. Gamble; secretary, Mrs. Ray Wilson; treasurer, Mrs. J. M. Spettel; marshal, Mrs. E. G. Wright; custodian, Miss Ruth Thompson; warder, J. E. Porter; argus, Earl B. Wright; trustee, Mrs. B. F. Mathias; pianist, Mrs. Margaret Sullivan; assistant pianist, Mrs. Bernice Reynolds; editor, H. B. McLaughlin.

COURT OF HONOR.

Newark Court of Honor met Tuesday evening. A call for applications for membership by the chancellor was answered by the recorder in reading 34 applications for membership. A large class of comrades was initiated. The entertainment committee announced that there would be some thing doing on January 21.

M. O. E. F.

Mt. Olive Encampment No. 12, will meet next Thursday night at 7:30. The Encampment meetings have been very good in the past, but the degree work was rather slow, owing to the epidemic of influenza, but we are assured that on next Thursday night the Royal Purple degree will be conferred in royal form, on a class of candidates.

Canton Olive.

Canton Olive, No. 90, held its annual inspection which was well attended on Wednesday evening, and was inspected by Major L. H. Lint, commanding the second battalion, residing at Uhrichsville. On the next meeting night, Jan. 22, there will be joint installation of officers of the Ladies Auxiliary and Canton Olive, and an excellent committee has charge of the program following the meeting.

Newark Lodge.

Last Monday evening there was a good attendance of Newark Lodge and considerable routine business was transacted. The lodge has arranged for a meeting Monday, January 13. The district deputy will be present to witness the initiatory degree and also to install the officers of the lodge. The lodge is assured that there will be other features of the meeting which no member will care to miss.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS.

Newark Lodge, No. 13.

Newark Lodge No. 13 met Thursday evening with a small attendance on account of the Page rank team going to Columbus to confer the Page rank for January lodge. The Page rank was conferred by the team from Newark lodge in dramatic form, it being the first time that this work was ever conferred in Columbus.

Uniform Rank.

Licking company, No. 121, met on Wednesday evening with a good attendance. A special meeting will be held Friday evening, January 17th. The annual inspection will be held Wednesday evening, January 22nd.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS.

The first meeting night for 1919 will be held next Monday night. As this is the first meeting for the year the stay-at-homes should strive to begin the year by taking an active interest in the welfare of the Council. Attendance at meetings has been gradually increasing and it is hoped before long the absentees will be greatly in the minority. Memorial services for Newark Council will not be held Sunday. Notice of the exact date will be printed in these columns.

A man may be at home in predicting the weather and still be away off.

Give Candy Cascarets to a Bilious, Constipated Child

"Mother gives me a candy Cascaret when I am cross, sick and won't play."

TO MOTHERS! Each ten cent box of Cascarets, candy cathartic, contains full directions for dose for children aged one year old and upwards. Nothing else "works" the nasty bile, sour fermentations and constipation poison from the tender little bowels so gently, yet so thoroughly. Even cross, feverish, bilious children gladly take Cascarets without being coaxed. Cascarets taste just like candy. Cascarets never gripe the little bowels, never sicken, never injure, but above all, they never disappoint the worried mother.

NEW ALMANAC HAS COMPLETE WAR RECORD

On the cover of the World Almanac for 1919 there is the promise in red letters of a "Complete War Record." It is a promise adequately kept. The book presents the chronology, the general history, the cost, the encyclopaedic facts, the industrial crisis, the inventions, the every phase of war and its times. It offers liberally of President Wilson's speeches. Its record of events includes the Presidential trip to Europe. The terms of armistice are given, along with Mr. Wilson's 14 points suggested for settlement.

No other publication offers so complete and handy a summary of war facts and situations. This feature alone would make The World's newest year-book a volume of inestimable worth. But it is only a feature—albeit a vitally important one—of a reference book rounded almost to a perfection of utility.

In the issue for this New Year the Almanac more than retains the fullness of its excellence as an up-to-date encyclopaedia. All the customary tables of statistics are presented in trade, industry, finance, education, religion and other world affairs; as usual the Almanac is a complete handbook of state, national and local politics; as it was in the beginning, so it is now the last word of authority in sporting records. But old tables have been expanded and new ones added.

Atitudes of mountains, lakes and towns the country over; greatly enlarged schedules of city-to-city distances; a list of zoological gardens of the world; popular votes for President by states from 1856 to 1916; seed-planting dates and a garden-planting map—these are but a few of the big and little additions to the matters set in these generous pages.

The World Almanac is published by The New York World. Price 50 cents, postpaid.

Refuses to Smile.

"Well, old man, 'Las Fortune smiled on you yet?" "No; I'm beginning to think she must have a front tooth out!"—Boston Transcript.

Abe Martin

Copyright National Newspaper Service.

It's th' feller that works when there's nothin' t' do that lands on Easy street. 'Th' cost o' buildin' th' Hog Island ship yards don't surprise me," said Late Bud, who had his house remodelled this fall.

Found Something to Stick.

My boy is a restless sort. Once I gave him the third handkerchief for the day—two others he had lost. "Here, now," I said, "I hope you will not lose this one. How glad I will be when things stick to you." In the evening I served him with molasses. He stretched across the table in his usual restless way in search of something and turned over the molasses bowl. The molasses went all over the table and all over him. In trying to remove the molasses from his clothes, the boy observed: "Ma, at last something sticks to me!"—Chicago Tribune.

With everything going up in price there isn't much difference between the high-ways and the buy-ways.
